ANOTHER YEAR HAS COME AND GONE LEAVING BEHIND A HOST OF MEMORIES, THE MOST VIVID OF WHICH WE HAVE TRIED TO RECORD IN THIS VOLUME THAT THEY MAY BE AN UNFAILING RECOURSE IN RECALLING THE EVENTS OF THIS YEAR IN THE TIME TO COME. IT IS THE SINCERE HOPE OF THE STAFF THAT "FEW WILL READ THESE PAGES WITHOUT PROFIT; NONE WITHOUT PLEASURE." » » »

IN ADMIRATION OF

COACH COOK SYPHER — THIS "BLUE AND GRAY" IS DEDICATED TO HIM IN SINCERE APPRECIATION FOR HIS FINE COACHING AND UNSELFISH COMRADESHIP THROUGHOUT HIS FIVE YEARS WITH US. HIS DEPARTURE IS OUR LOSS BUT WE WISH HIM THE SUCCESS HE DESERVES IN HIS NEW POSITION AS ASSISTANT COACH AT SANTA ROSA JUNIOR COLLEGE. TO HIM WE SAY—"AD ASTERA PER ASPERA." » » »

School Daze

Sherman Frick

The life of the student is a hard one indeed,
The law of assignments is forcefully decreed;
He has no time for fun or for frolic,
His life is in danger, like one with the colic.
First it's one teacher and then it's another,
Each storms and stews and creates a big bother.
It's "Now, why didn't you do the homework I gave you

If you want a 'B,' you'll have to be thorough."
The next one says, "What do you do all the time?
To get up to an 'A' is a long, long climb."
They don't stop to think that each one is tougher
That the last one who has just finished making you suffer.

By the time you have finished with all your classes,
You have read enough books to go and get glasses;
Because if you study each one till you tire,
You're sure to go blind, and I am no liar.

Class Will

Class of February, 1936

We the Class of February, 1936, being bodaciously tetched in the head, bring forth the last will and testament.

To the faculty we bequeath our old test papers, so that they may remember the intelligence of our class.

To the next senior class we do will and bequeath our exceptional scholarship record.

- I, Thomas Brunton, do hereby bestow upon the boys' chorus my vocal talent. (Not that they need it.)
- I, Elmer Burke, bestow upon Pat Nesler the care of my girl friend.
- I, Jane Burrows, bestow upon Mary Halliburton my slenderness and petite manners.
- I, Everett Cannon, do will and bequeath my snappy advances and sex appeal to Glenn Wilson.
- I, Eddie Carney, bestow upon David Tripiano the tender care of Lucille Maritz.
- I, John Hoffman, bequeath my little sister (Doris) to the care of Peter Spily.
- I, Armand Holthouse, bestow my favorite heart thrill to the care of the Kienitz Brothers.
- I, Toshi Honda, do will and bequeath my pull with Miss Coleman to Ordway Manning.
- I, Emily Huff, do will my dramatic ability to Camille Hoffman.
- I, Ruth Inouye, do will my ability in Public Speaking to Jim Straub.
- I, Charles Kankel, do will and bestow upon Captain Brunton my sense of humor.
- I, Mike Marovich, do will and bestow upon Mouse Duran my drag with our library teacher.
- I, Alfred McManus, do bestow upon Max Bellew my ability to wear tuxedos at school dances.
- I, Clarence Mendoza, do will and bestow upon Janette Watkins my ability to dance the "dime jig".
- I, Carol Anne Nicholas, bestow upon Barbara de Curtoni my singing ability.
- I, John Puppo, do will my knowledge of football to Coach Sypher.
- I, Bill Sharp, do will and bestow my wisecracks to Katherine Good.

Class of June, 1936

- I, Frank Beales, do bestow upon "Peppy Martinez my flat feet (or is it your feet, Frank?)
- I, Harry Bellew, will my position as president of the student body to Harry McCandless. (Don't forget to serve towels, Harry.)
- I, Katherine Bewley, will my horsemanship to Gwen Larson.
- I, Anita Bilbao, will my charming friends to the new freshmen.
- I, Marjorie Burrows, will my even temper to Pete Janovich.
- I, Inez Cabano, will my cute eyebrows to Geraldine Fricke.
- I, Angelo Calzado, will my glasses to Ed Brown.
- I, Lucille Campbell, will my feminine appeal to Fern Stonebarger.
- I, Jack Cardoza, will my megaphone to Mary Escano. (I wonder whom you will be rooting for, Mary?)
- I, Dominic Ciriscioli, will my loud voice to Pat Nesler. (Maybe she will be able to hear you now, Pat.)
- I, Robert Clifford, bequeath to Melvin Silva my ability to do physics.
- I, Isaias Duran, will my much borrowed fountain pen to Arthur Gray.
- I, Paul Eriksen, will my mellow voice to Joseph Alves.
- I, Sherman Frick, will my sense of humor to Mary Halliburton.
- I, Marion Fujii, will my knitting to Jack Randall, hoping that he will find it interesting.
- I, Frances Furnari, will my willingness to give advice to the lovelorn, to Joyce Corridan.

Class Will

- I, Grace Halderson, will my sweet disposition to Wanda Stern.
- I, Charlie Hamasaki, will my "way with the women" to George Konoshima.
- I, Myrtle Hobbs, will my ability to play the piano for the Boys' Chorus to Jeanette Thompson.
- I, Camille Hoffman, will my secret passion for Bob Straub to Mildred Lawson.
- I, Irene Hori, will my height to Lola Johnston.
- I, Masohiko Ikebe, will my ability to drive a car to anyone who knows how.
- I, Takeo Ishikawa, will my ability to run the hundred yard dash to Harry Graham.
- I, Harriet Johnson, will my lovely figure to Doris Hoffman.
- I, Margaret King, will the handkerchief that I cried into when the navy left, to the Y. M. C. A. to keep and cherish.
- I, Ward King, will my good grades in economics to Helen Molinari.
- I, Toshiko Konoshima, will my place in the scholarship society to Fred Facciolla.
- I, Bessie Koos, will my southern drawl to Kimiko Higashiuchi.
- I, Camille Kortess, will all but one of my boy friends to Barbara de Curtoni.
- I, Mary Lanz, will my blond hair to Frances Mena.
- I, Ordway Manning, do bequeath my place on the football team to the one and only Atkinson.
- I, Josephine Marcella, will my unusual walk to Jean Love.
- I, Henry Marshall, do bestow upon Josephine Martin my love for Kirby von Leuwen.
- I, Mary Nagao, will my place in the cafeteria to "Shorty" McManus.
- I, Patrick Nesler, will my air-cooled car to Tom Job.
- I, Renee Nougues, will my love of French to Lucille Maritz.
- I, Colin Peters, will my frequent and confidential talks with Captain Brunton to Mary Zanetti.
- I, Nan Peters, will my nickname "Mudnose" to Bobbie McPheeters. (Not that I don't want it, Bobbie.)
- I, Ercole Pecorelli, bestow upon Bill Orr my basketball ability.
- I, Ruby Popovich, will my fun in Spanish to Sue Frothingham.
- I, Roger Popovich, bestow upon William Garliepp my front seat in English.
- I, Katherine Radich, do bestow my charming smile to Virginia Barkley.
- I, Marion Radisich, bequeath my dreamy eyes to June Redwine, hoping she will get her man.
- I, Dick Ralston, will my ability to pitch horseshoes with Captain Brunton to Eddie Kirkish.
- I, Tom Sato, will my ability to draw to "Bubs" Ramsey.
- I, Edna Schultze, will my helpfulness around school to Virginia Thompson.
- I, Ed Sharp, will my tenor voice to Jack Briggs.
- I, Masago Shibuya, bequeath my Sequoia loyalty to Virginia Waters.
- I, Jim Straub, bestow upon my brother all my girl friends.
- I, Tomoko Tsuchiya, will my ability to polish the apple to Tom Witherspoon. (Not that he isn't already quite accomplished in the art.)
- I, Janette Watkins, will my grades in civics to Jack Brownlie.
- I, Grace Waits, will my ability in physics to Howard Chamberlin.
- I, Dick Whittington, will my ability in physics to Howard Chamberlin.
- I, Glen Wilson, bequeath my position as stage manager to my brother.
- I, Kazuko Yamaji, do bestow upon Max Bellew my ability to bake potatoes.
- I, Sachiko Yamamoto, do bestow upon Ann Zec my long name.

LOW SENIORS

Low Senior Class

Due to the big demand of the members of the low seniors in other activities there has been very little class activity. Most important to them, perhaps, was the purchasing of their senior rings. Max Bellew, Isabel Mendoza, Nellie Sweney and David Nordberg took the sole responsibility of selecting the rings, and we might say, did an excellent job.

This year they took charge of the bar at the Carnival and worked hard to make it a success and their efforts were certainly rewarded.

Regarded most outstanding in the class are the boys who participate in sports, namely, Andrew Janovich, Jack Randall and Peter Spily. These boys were top-notch in football, baseball and the latter also in track. Also, we might add to their proud list, Charlie Moore, who is much in demand as life guard for the girls.

The low seniors will be graduating soon, but they will have left behind a record that will not soon be forgotten.

High Juniors

The Class of '37 had an excellent year. They are now upper classmen and the talent of various members is beginning to show. In their first semester with Daniel Van de Sande as president, plans for the annual Junior Carnival were started. Jeannette Thompson was appointed general chairman and was assisted by a capable staff. In this semester the class was awarded the scholarship placque for having the greatest percentage of students in the C. S. F. More than one student distinguished himself in the art department. When the second semester rolled around it brought with it Ralph Davis as president of the class. In the course of events as time went on one of the leads in the operetta was held by a high junior. In athletics they were genuinely proud to win the inter-class track meet and to have more than one representative on our various first strings in the respective sports. The carnival was put on in this semester and surpassed all previous records in profit. This leaves a goal for the carnival class. The student body, student councils and league offices were filled by juniors in no mediocre number. After a year such as this, we feel they can and do look forward to a most eventful senior year.

Low Junior Class

They are now upper classmen, feeling very wise and important. True to their colors, they took a big step forward in all activities. Well may they be proud of the boys their class gave to sports, namely: Tony Spily, an all around star; George Matsuba; Harry McCandless; Masao Miyashita; Glen McManus, their jovial president, and George Sanchez.

They were second highest in the school for scholarship, 11% of their class being on the scholarship society. They have held this place since entering high school and hope to do even better next year.

Their booth at the carnival was both novel and successful, and their amateur hour for an assembly program was a riot. A comic one-act play, "They Clean the Attic," was also presented to the student body, the cast consisting of Barbara de Curtoni, Mary Escano, and Harry Graham.

It is only a small class but it shows what can be done by cooperating with each other. Officers for the past semester were: President, Glen McManus; vice-president, Irene Axell; secretary-treasurer, Mary Escano; reporter, Masao Miyashita; council representative, Tony Spily.

spoon, Marayama, Takano. (Second Row) M. Thompson, Zec Ogata, Takashima, Spencer, Popovich, Mylrea, Silva, Uhrhammer, Seitz, Reese. (Seated) Vincent, Molinari, Sherman, Redwine, Pacchetti, Pritchett, Wikstrom, Burr,
J. Thompson, Yamaji, Sueki.

LOW JUNIORS—(Top Row left to right) McManus, McCandless, Sanchez, Spily, Mohrmann, Querantes, Miyashita,
Matsuba. (Second Row) Abe, Sugai, Viarisio, Axell, Davick, Piper, Loerke, Shaw, Mena. (Seated) Shiraki, Nishiura,
Bailey, Zanetti, Miss Birkland, deCurtoni, Cleal, Marcetti, Escano.

High Sophomores

It is the duty of each sophomore class to give the Freshman Reception to officially "bring out" the freshman. This year it was a gala affair which the class may well be proud of. The decorations, different from any ever used before, were patterned after Coconut Grove.

As always a great interest was taken in Shakespearean plays, and under Miss Wilbur's able direction the "Merchant of Venice" was produced for one of their class meetings. They again showed their dramatic ability in an assembly program. This time it was a good old melo-drama, "The Villain Still Pursued Her," put on by Miss Mylne's and Mr. Grubb's advisories. The cast was as follows: Jack Screwice, the hero—Morris Beddoe; Emaline Handout, the heroine—Virginia Waters; John Handout, her father—Henry Schultze; Lina Handout, her mother—Virginia Thompson; George Graburn, the villain—Ted Hopkins; Jim Spyrit, detective—William Steach; Mary Innigin, housemaid—Eloise Harrison; Lizzie Leaping, literary genius—Jeanne Cancilla.

Throughout the year they had several swimming and advisory parties.

They are looking forward to next year when they can say, "We are the upper classmen."

Their officers for the year were: President, Jack Brownlie; vice-president, Bobby McPheeters; secretary, Virginia Waters; sergeant-at-arms, Bob Straub; treasurer, Mary Halliburton.

Low Sophomores

The period of adjustment that comes to every student when he forever leaves the "green ranks" and becomes a sophomore has been successfully weathered by Mr. Sypher's class.

There has not been much class activity but the few things they did were well done. Their candy booth at the carnival was patronized by practically everyone. A few of the girls in the class who were interested in sports worked hard during practice and were rewarded by receiving G. A. A. blocks. Their next goal is their M. V. block.

Their officers for the year were: President, Joe Barbera; vice-president, Lucille Maritz; secretary, Lorena Mylrea; treasurer, Clotilda Thoza; council representative, Dick Atkinson.

High Freshmen

When the present class of high freshmen entered high school they were all prepared to face the big, bad juniors and seniors, so they dusted off their dignity and put away their giggles in moth balls. They found out that the upper classmen weren't such ogres as they had been led to believe and began to relax and enjoy themselves somewhat.

They were peppy and put many of us to shame by their attendance at school dances and sports events. Not only did they make us proud of them by their attendance, but they took part in these events and worked with a will to make bigger and better successes for their new school. We expect great things from them and from all the signs so far we certainly are not going to be disappointed. Their officers for the year were: President, Walter Funabiki; secretary, Katherine Doust; vice-president, Ruth Job; treasurer, Joel McPheeters; council representative, Dick McClure.

Low Freshmen

We are accustomed to rather ignore the class of freshmen who come in at midyear but this year they have rather put one over on the veterans. They have been so busy doing this and that and coming to and taking part in our school affairs that we are simply forced to sit up and take notice. They have done more in a short time than some classes have all year.

The first thing they did was to pop up and sign their names on the dotted line for the Scholarship Society and managed to keep enrolled too. They took a trip to the Pacific Press to see the wheels of industry go round and round.

They organized their class very soon, elected officers, collected dues, and started doing things. Officers for the year were: President, Kenneth Wilkins; secretary-treasurer, Virginia True; council representative, Gertrude Burr.

This year has been one of the most progressive years of this student body, led by Captain Brunton, and two student body presidents, Harry Bellew first semester, and Henry Marshall second semester.

The student body now being out of debt, more money is available for much needed improvements.

The members of the Executive Council are as follows:

First Semester		Second Semester
Harry Bellew.....	President.....	Henry Marshall
Jack Randall.....	Vice-President.....	Jack Randall
Jeannette Thompson.....	Secretary.....	Jeannette Thompson
Henry Marshall.....	Treasurer.....	Ordway Manning
Richard Madison.....	Manager of Boys' Athletics.....	Tom Witherspoon
Lucille Campbell.....	Manager of Girls' Athletics.....	Lucille Campbell
Peter Janovich.....	Advertising Manager.....	Peter Janovich
Marion Thompson.....	Editor of "Blue and Gray".....	Marion Thompson

The council also consists of a representative from each class.

Girls' and Boys' Leagues

The Boys' League enjoyed a very successful year, under the leadership of Jack Brownlie and the guidance of Mr. Wilder.

The League backed to the utmost the various school activities and promoted one of the most successful work days in years.

The following are the officers of the Boys' League: Jack Brownlie, president; Jack Randall, program chairman; Jack Cardoza, secretary; Mr. Wilder, sponsor.

The Girls' League has had another prosperous year under the supervision of Mrs. Stalford, our Dean of Girls, and Nan Peters, president. Officers completing the council were: Jane Burrows, vice-president; Irene Axell, secretary, and Josephine Martin, treasurer.

The first social affair was the Tin Can Dance just before Christmas. Several interesting programs were arranged and given for the girls. Camille Hoffman was in charge of all the social events of the year.

Band

The band, under the direction of Mr. Campbell, who was assisted by Carol Ann Nicholas, Camille Cortez, and Rena Forno, played as usual for the football and basketball games and several assembly programs. It rendered community service by playing for the Community Christmas Party. Both Mr. Campbell and the band astounded all by coming forth with a series of popular numbers. The annual spring concert was held on the front lawn and was very much enjoyed.

Orchestra

The orchestra's outstanding performance of the year was the opening of the Civic Auditorium in San Jose. Other performances were an exchange with Los Gatos and a spring concert at which they were assisted by the band, and mixed chorus. They will make the last appearance at the commencement in June.

Operetta

The operetta this year was the charming Gilbert and Sullivan "H. M. S. Pinafore." Tryouts were held and the cast was chosen from the best voices in the school. Some parts were so close that two people were chosen for the part—one for the grammar school performance and one for the high school performance. The outstanding part was that of Donald Lawson as Sir Joseph Porter. He sang in the English accent and was the hit of the show. His cousin, played by Toshiko Konoshima, was very amusing also as a fussy little old maid always petting and pampering Sir Joseph. The Captain's lovely daughter was charmingly done by Barbara de Curtoni and Mary Zanetti. Tom Brunton played Dick Deadeye—such a tough character that he entertained the whole audience with his comical songs and gestures. The entire cast was as follows:

OPERETTA CAST

The Girls' Chorus

The girls' chorus made their first appearance at a Girls' League meeting. They were rather in need of polish because of the early date of their appearance. They improved rapidly, however, and by Christmas made an excellent showing in the community program. The girls' chorus took a prominent part in the operetta, "Pinafore," taking the roles of Sir Joseph's "Sisters, Cousins, and Aunts" and displayed the careful training they had undergone. The leading female roles were played well by two members of the chorus, Barbara de Curtoni and Mary Zanetti. Near the end of April the chorus distinguished itself in the annual spring concert with other departments.

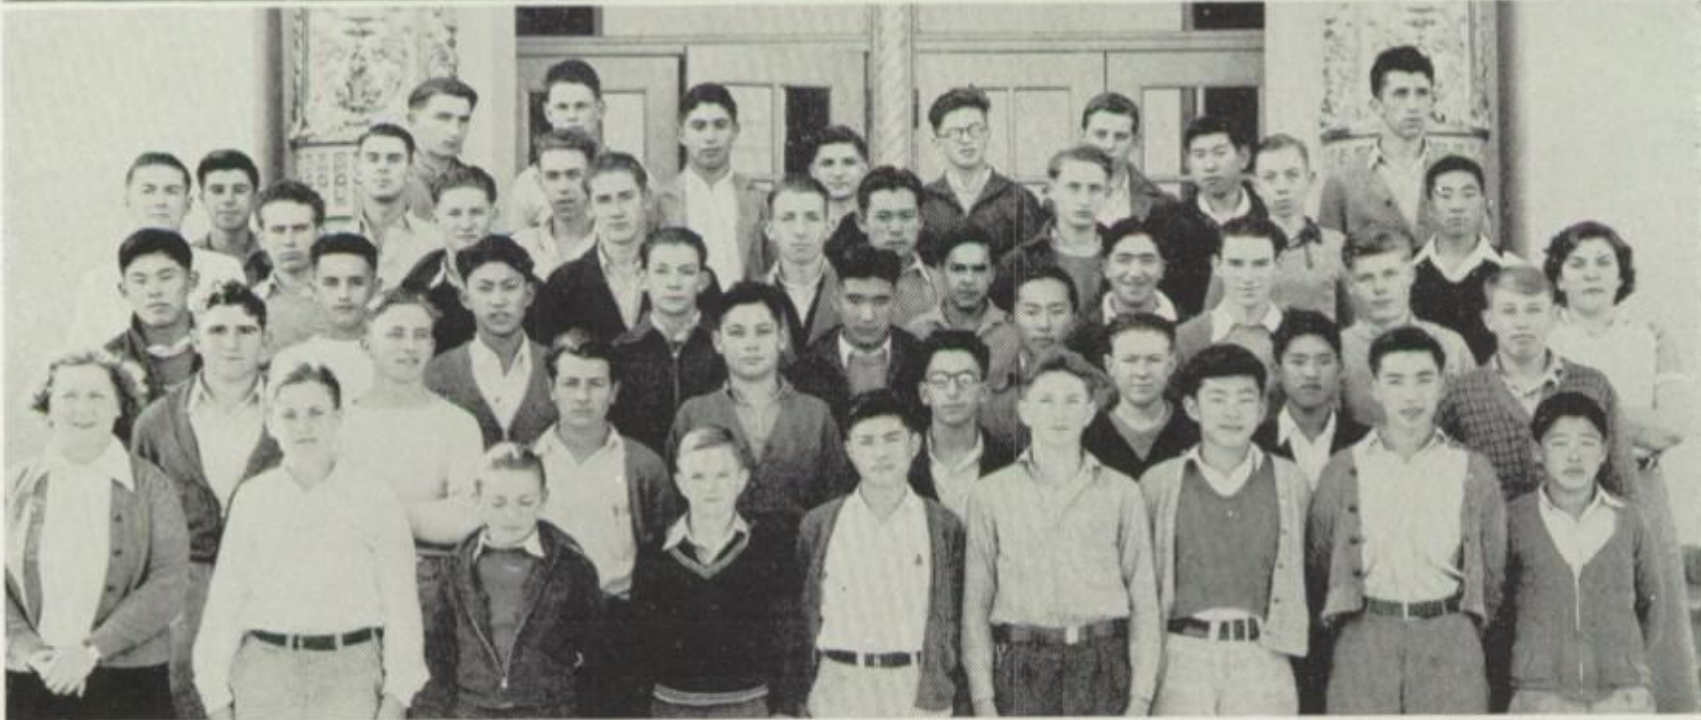

The Boys' Chorus

The boys' chorus consists of fifty voices under the direction of Miss Isabelle Becker. Their first program was for the student body at one of the meetings. They sang, "There's a Long, Long Trail Awinding," and "Keep the Home Fires Burning." They were in the operetta also, having the parts of members of the crew. They sang many enjoyable songs in the Spring concert and altogether spent a profitable year as well as a pleasant one.

Mixed Chorus

The mixed chorus represents twenty of the most talented vocalists of our school. They have been very active this year. They have, in previous years, sung occasionally for assembly and league programs but have been heard of very little otherwise. This year, though, they have done some really big things. They have awakened many of the students into realizing the excellent musical department we have.

Their first important appearance was the singing of Christmas carols put on with the Community Christmas play. Their next appearance was in conjunction with an evening of one-act plays. They put on selections from "Carmen" by Bizet. Mr. Campbell's orchestra accompanied them. The costuming was lovely, just the correct background for the colorful songs of that popular Spanish opera. On May sixth they aided Mr. Campbell in his band and orchestra concert with a few vocal numbers.

Eagle Staff

The "Eagle" staff was off to a good start during the first semester under the direction of Josephine Martin. We were unfortunate in losing her at the beginning of the second semester. She was replaced by Myrtle Hobbs, previous assistant editor. Harry Graham became assistant editor. We also lost Johnny Puppo who was boys' sport editor. He was replaced by Peter Janovich.

The feature event of this semesters' staff was the trip to the Journalism Convention in Berkeley, which was a great benefit in improving our paper. Among the speakers we heard were Sam Hayes, the Richfield Reporter, and Robert C. Elliot, a San Francisco Chronicle Reporter.

As we were unable to print a school paper, Mr. Smith of the Register-Leader was most kind in printing our articles in his paper.

Typing Team

Due to the Annual going to press at this time, we are unable to list the results of the State-wide Typing Contest to be entered by the M. V. team on May 14th. The team is composed of two classes: Novice, those with training since August, 1935, who have made a minimum rate of 40 words net per minute, and the Amateurs—those who have received training since August, 1934, making a minimum record of 50 words per minute. The highest speed of the year was made by our amateur typist, Grace Haldorsen, who has gone up to the 85 word mark already, with complete accuracy. Marjorie Burrows, also an Amateur, runs a close second, with 75 words and outstanding accuracy. A meet with the Santa Clara Valley teams is on the schedule for the latter part of May.

Scholarship

Boom! What's the date? Boom! February 29th Carnival night. Boom! Rolling, thunderous noise and loud, exultant shouting! Where is it all coming from? Boom! Can it be—why yes—it is the Scholarship's concession. Who would think that our foremost scholars, those supposedly sober and book-absorbed individuals, could indulge, with such reckless abandon, in the thrilling sport of bowling? But after investigation all "doubting Thomases" are obliterated and the fact established; it is not "Scholarship for Service" entirely, but also, "Scholarship for Enjoyment."

Yearly Calendar '35-'36: Freshman party, October 10, 1935; Book Week, November 18-22, 1935; Bowling Concession at Carnival, February 29, 1936; Excursion to Pacific Press, March 26, 1936; Excursion to Murison Labeling Co., April 2, 1936; Watsonville Convention, April 25, 1936; Excursion to University of California, May 9, 1936.

We may applaud athletics and dramatics. We may acclaim achievements in many lines, but in the last analysis our education is based on scholarship. Think of the silent hour of the night and the student's lamp. There you have, perhaps the best symbol for a school's purpose. Those of you who have gained distinction on this page represent endeavor and perseverance to a marked degree. Your distinction is more definitely marked because you were willing to work for that success single-handed and under the strain of silent endurance. You rank high in qualities that life demands and preparation for life is your aim. When many passing phases of school have been forgotten, your ideals will remain to us as a permanent goal.

SENIOR PLAY

Dramatics

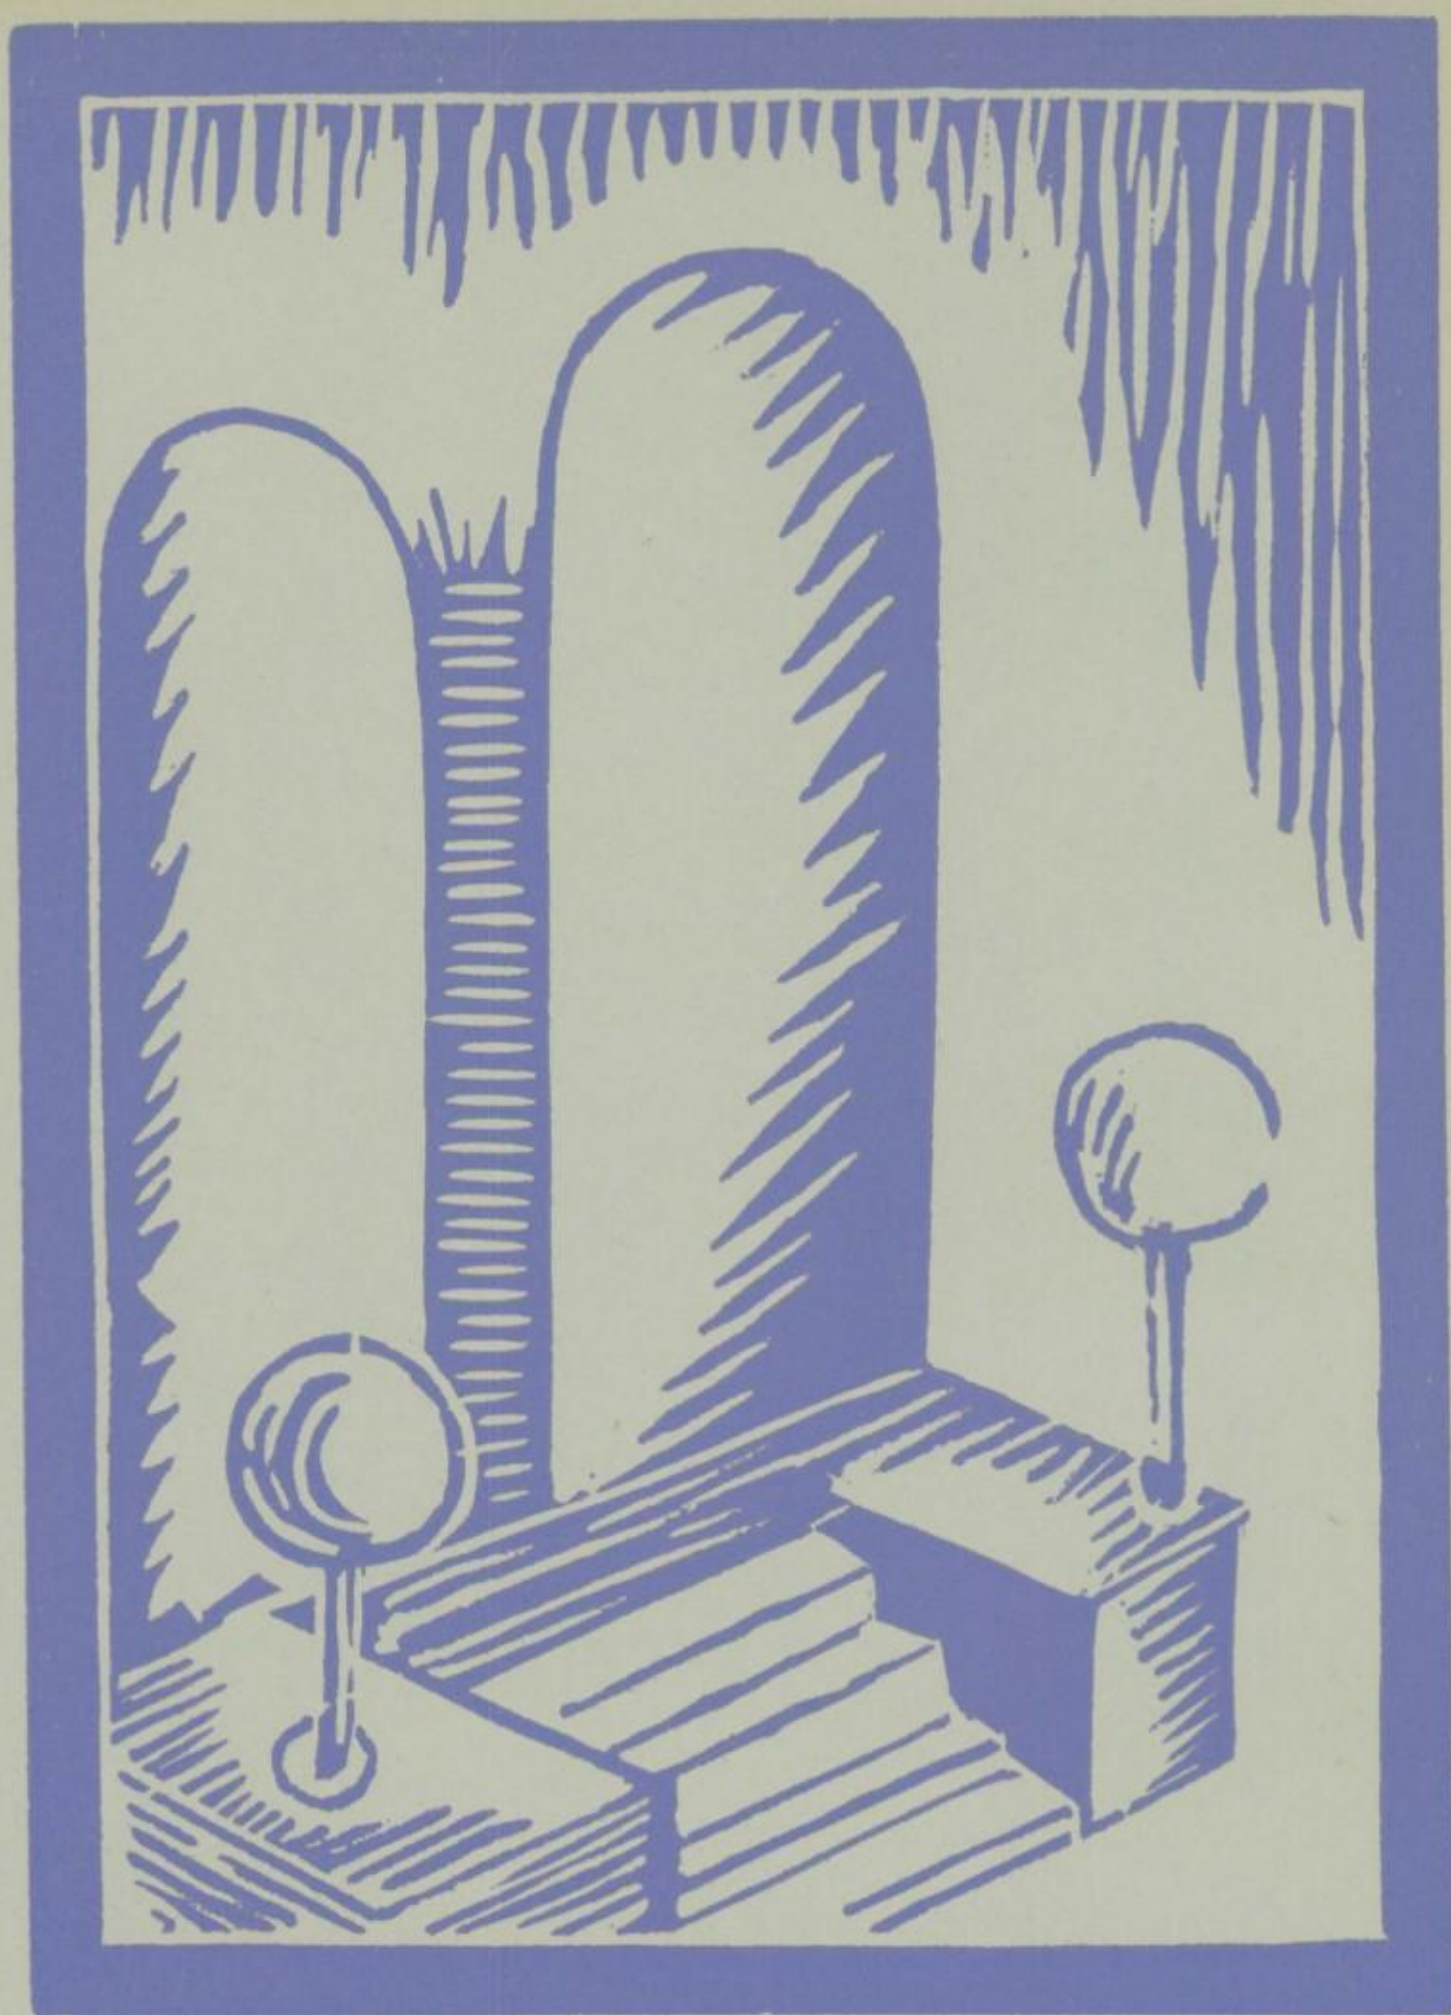

The dramatics classes this year have done a great deal of excellent work. They have done a great many more plays and had more interest shown than ever before. They put on two evenings of one-act plays. The first semester class did "Sparking" and "The Valiant." The second semester produced "A Message from Khufu," and "The Monkey's Paw." Two more one-act plays were staged for Senior Night—"Rich Man, Poor Man," and "Have You Anything to Declare?"

The senior play, "Cock Robin," was different from previous years. The scenery and action were more elaborate than usual. It was really quite an advanced type of play for high school but was done very well nevertheless. The advance whispers were exciting—people wondering what kind of play it was, who killed who, and why, and was it modern or period? Everyone was interested, but the whole plot was kept a secret until the night of the play and no one was disappointed. It was a play within a play in which a man was killed in full view of hundreds of people in the audience and the remainder of the play was taken in solving it.

Football

For the third time in the past four years the Mountain Eagle football team came through to win the S. C. V. A. L. Championship. Although most of the boys on the squad were light and inexperienced, the fight and cooperation they displayed made up for their lack of size. This, with the excellent coaching of "Cook" Sypher, turned out the strongest team that Mountain View has had in the past five years. Under the leadership of Captain Vidovich, the boys swept through their league games like real champions, holding league competition scoreless and themselves scoring 94 points. The boys played clean, hard football, both offensively and defensively, and were a credit to the school. Boys who have played their last game of high school competition and who will be missed next year are: Captain Vidovich, the best center in the league; Charles Hamasaki, the best end in the league; Tom Brunton, a valuable running and blocking back; Bob Mastin, although the lightest man in the league, was an outstanding guard; Harry Bellew holds his own with any tackle in the league; and Eddie Carney, Marovich, and Sharp all contributed in developing the team. Although the losses look heavy, Mountain View rooters will be glad to know that Tony Spily, Andy Janovich, Brownlie, Henderson, Barkley, Seitz, Querantes, Hernandez, Mylrea, Tom and Jack Witherspoon, Kientitz, Ciriscioli, Pete Spily, and Jack Randall are returning next year as a strong nucleus for another championship team.

Unlimited Basketball

The unlimited team made up of veterans won its second consecutive championship this year. The boys received their careful training and fundamentals from Coach "Cook" Sypher and both this and their cooperation with each other showed in their team work throughout the season, leading them on to victory. Every game was swiftly and clearly played. No team begrudged them their victories for they were hard- and well-earned. The team, of which we may well be proud, was as follows: Captain Andy Janovich, Pete Spily, Tony Spily, Louis Vidovich, Peppy Martinz, Bob Mastin, Ed Mylrea, John Sietz, and Walter Hernandez.

Thirties

The 130's came through with flying colors for the first time in a number of years. Through the team's cooperation they were able to give us a season of good, snappy ball. To add to their laurels of championship they coolly and calmly defeated all the P. A. L. schools. The congratulations go to Coach Grubb and Captain Pete Janovich and the boys on the team: Ed Carney, Ralph Davis, Mike Marovich, Yuki Imai, Dan Van de Sande, Richard Urhammer, Jack Barkley, and Nathan Kimura.

Twenties

The 120's, with a veteran five, came through and won the S. C. V. A. L. Championship for the sixth consecutive year. The games were fast and exciting from beginning to end. The boys who started most of the games were: Captain Harry Kiyomura, Sam Nakamota, Tony Barrile, Wilson, and Pecorelli. The boys wish the future twenty team the best of luck and hope that they make it seven consecutive championships in a row.

Tens

The Mountain View 110's team after a disastrous season last year came back this year with fight and courage, and played great basketball to win the S. C. V. A. L. championship.

Under the able coaching of Mr. Grubb a fine team was produced. Led by Captain Jack Cardoza the team showed fine cooperation and played fast and snappy basketball. The team was as follows: Captain Cardoza, Beales, Hori, Ishimaru and Funabiki.

Baseball

As Napoleon fell at Waterloo so did the victims of Mountain View. It brought the fourth consecutive championship in baseball to Mountain View High. As all the boys were veterans it did not take long to get in shape and start winning with a bang. In four years the Eagles won twenty-eight consecutive league games without a loss. The boys were in high spirits all of the time and played fast-moving, first class ball throughout the season. Three veterans will be lost for next year and they are: Pete Spily, chucker; Andrew Janovich, centerfield; Jack Randall, third base. The boys will miss these three but they wish the team all luck to carry on! It was Coach Sypher's last game also, and we wish him the best of luck at Santa Rosa.

The line-up was: Tony Spily, catcher; Peter Spily and Andy Janovich, chuckers; Hernandez, first base; Ikebe, second base; Jack Randall, third base; "Peppy" Martinez, short stop; Van de Sande, Kiymoura, Nakamota, Pete Spily and Andy Janovich were the outfielders.

Track

Since the Annual goes to press before any of the scheduled track meets, we cannot write anything about the actual meets. But we might venture to say that, with our fine new track, nothing should seem impossible.

The "lightweights" with many of the veterans back should come close to championship and the "unlimiteds" although handicapped by limited numbers on the team, should make a good showing in the annual S. C. V. A. L. meet.

Tennis

Unfortunately tennis is also a late sport. While the team hasn't played any matches yet, they have shown during practice that they are rounding out in good shape and give us every reason to believe that they will come out on top, under the able coaching of Mr. Grubb.

Girls' Athletics

Girls' sports are becoming more and more important in the school's curriculum. This year our basketball team went to Palo Alto High School, where members attended a play-day entered by several surrounding schools. Besides the usual tennis, basketball, volley ball, baseball, hockey, and swimming, two new sports were introduced, archery and badminton, which afforded the students much enjoyment. This year there was an inter-class volleyball tournament. After playing games within the classes the best team of the class was selected. On the nights given to volley ball after school these teams played off their games. The tournament was won by Period 2.

In the first semester of the school year a girls' party was held. Some girls dressed as boys and escorted other girls and teachers. A most interesting program was planned by Lucille Hardin after which there was dancing. The evening was such a success that the girls unanimously voted to make it a yearly affair. As this is being written a tennis tournament is being conducted for those interested in this sport.

In the first semester Ruth Inouye was president of the G.A.A., followed by Lucille Campbell as the second semester president. Under Lucille's direction, the G.A.A. planned and conducted a successful concession at the Carnival for the first time since the G.A.A. was started. More and more blocks and chevrons have been given out this year, proving the growth and expansion of the organization. After most of the afternoon had been spent in vigorous exercise, refreshments were served. This was followed by "stunts" by all schools participating in the play day, after which the gym was converted into a dance floor.

Concerning hockey; this year, spirited discussions were held whether the third period class was better than the fourth period class. The conclusion was reached that to prove anything one way or another the game must be played. The night was selected and the game began. A valiant fight ensued and the victory went to the third period class.

THE BACK COURT

He Changed His Mind

Katherine Good

"Hello, Joe. Where ya' goin' in such a big rush? Oh, Oh, I'll bet it's the new girl friend I heard you had. Is it serious? Oh, so ya' bought her an engagement ring, huh? Say, that's bad. You're sure she loves ya' though? Well, that's different, or maybe again it isn't. Here's a nice lookin' place. Let's drop in for a minute; I got somethin' to' tell ya'. Here's an empty table; let's sit. Hey! waiter. O.K., treat's on me; order up.

"Well, as I was sayin', ya' know the beautiful blonde gal I was goin' with a few years ago? Let me tell ya' about her. She was a stenog for some big banker uptown, and boy did she put on th' dog. She was a swell dresser, I'll have to hand it to her for that, and she sure had fancy manners, too. All the other girls I used to go with, I used to take to Tony's Spaghetti joint; but her, we couldn't afford the Waldorf, but she always knew some expensive place to drag me. She said she liked tea. Tea! Now I ask ya'. We used to go to some English tea (S) shoppy. It was so quiet there that ye' could almost hear 'em droppin' their H's.

"Every time we went any place she had ta' tell me what fork ta' use, or how I should unfold my napkin, or I shouldn't wear my red tie with my blue sox. She told me ta' say 'pahdan me' instead of 'excuse me,' and how I should escort her down the street. Next thing I thought she'd be havin' me kissin' her hand like in the movies. 'Not me,' says I, 'I'm no lounge lizard.' She finally taught me all the manners she knew, and we'd have got along alright if she had stopped naggin' at me. I sure got a liberal education though.

"You say ya' remember her now, and she's a lot like your girl friend? You're sure ya' know who she is? I guess ya' never met my wife in that case, 'cause I didn't marry Blondie, and my wife and I are livin' happily ever after.

"Hey! Where ya' goin'? Oh, you're goin' ta' get your ring. Well, so long."

SCHOOL STARTS

(OH YEAH?)

Calendar

SEPTEMBER—Several teachers showed signs of fainting when most of the stoodints expressed delight (?) in being back in school . . .

OCTOBER—Miss Birkland's advisory presented a most worthy assembly program in the form of an amateur hour and a play . . .

NOVEMBER—Three things this month: Thanksgiving, Thanksgiving vacation (which everyone hated (?) to take), and the winning of the S. C. V. A. L. championship by the feetsball squad. No true student of this school doubted for a instink that they would win it, but it was good to have it "in the bag" . . .

DECEMBER—And Sandy Clawz. And another vacation. And the annual feetsball dance . . .

JANUARY—More local talent (?). Mr. Edwards put on two one-act plays and Miss Becker had several selections from Carmen, which were sung by members of the chorus . . .

Calendar

FEBRUARY—The only thing of much importance this month was mid-year graduation, and I 'spose that was pretty important to those doin' the graduating . . .

MARCH—The big feature for March was the operetta, "H.M.S. Pinafore," and if I do say it myself, it was pretty colossal . . .

APRIL—Ah, the seniors broke down and had a dance. Bee-yoo-ti-ful affair, let me tell you . . .

MAY—This month we had the Music Night program, with the band and orchestra, led by U. Gezz Hoo, and the mixed chorus, under the direction of Miss Becker. Gorgiss affair!

JUNE—Need I say what this month brings? No more school, no more teachers, no more books, no more nothing for three months. See you sometime in the future.

PS: Also the band concert . . .

Mrs. Gibson: "Norman, do you think of me all the time?"

Mr. Gibson: "Well dear, nearly all the time, but I do spend a little time wondering who the Republicans will nominate."

What's The Use?

Roger Potts

What's the use to worry?
You've not got long to stay;
Why not take things easy
As you pass along the way?
'Twill do no good to worry
If things are going wrong,
You may as well be pleasant,
Meet reverse with laugh and song.

What's the use to criticise?
What's the use to knock?
What's the use to ridicule,
Or at some one throw a rock?
Don't appoint yourself a censor,
No matter what you do,
This great big world was never made
For just a chosen few.

There's none of us that's perfect,
There's none or few can say
That we never stray or wander
From the straight and narrow way,
So when you start to hammer
Some poor soul who's gone astray
'Twill do no harm to stop and think
You too may lose your grip some day.

What's the use to kick one
Who's just about to fall?
If you do not care to help him
Don't mention him at all.
You will find, if you take notice,
That what I say is true;
While there may be faults in others,
There's a flaw or two in you.

The Lowly (?) Ref.

Dick Ralston

The fans have a hundred eyes;
The lowly ref but two;
But the referee's whistle does the work,
While the fans can only boo.

The fans will howl and rant and rave;
The ref is very quiet,
But yet one word of sass to him
Will cause a baby riot.

The noisy fans see fouls galore,
But the referee knows his bizz;
So close your trap and play the game
And take what he says, as is.
